

Tent revival brings community together

From Staff Reports | Posted: Sunday, October 16, 2016 12:00 am

A Community Tent Revival was held Oct. 10-15 at Camp Trinity in the Old Piney Community of Blount County. The revival was preached by pastors Tommy Boring, of New Providence Primitive Baptist Church; Tim Martin, of Keeble's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church; and Anthony Morgan, Six Mile Missionary Baptist Church. Special music was provided each night.

The tent revival was held to bring people together and foster a spirit of unity throughout Blount County. Boring said prior to the event, "Come ready to worship. There's no agenda — only to lift up Jesus Christ. It's a powerful thing to be a part of."

For more information, visit the website, come2revival.com.

Tent Revival

As darkness falls, the group Crossroads provides the music during a Community Tent Revival Oct. 10 at Camp Trinity.

Pastor Tommy Boring

Pastor Tommy Boring, of New Providence Primitive Baptist Church, opens the Community Tent Revival Oct. 10 at Camp Trinity.

Crossroads

Arnold Branton (from left), Rick Rose, Rusty Turbyfill and Steve Davis, of the group Crossroads, sing Oct. 10, the first night of the Community Tent Revival held at Camp Trinity.

Praying at Tent Revival

Attendees kneel and pray at the front of the stage on Oct. 10, the first night of the Community Tent Revival held at Camp Trinity.

The Rev. Tim Martin

The Rev. Tim Martin, of Keeble's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, delivers a sermon Oct. 10 on the first night of a tent revival held at Camp Trinity.